The 2021 Festival has Concession tickets available to the Sound Shell Daytimes and Weekend. There are no concession tickets available for the All In One Pass or for performances of The Iliad (Out Loud).

**ACCESS PASS INFORMATION

The Four Winds 2021 Access Pass includes entry to the 2021 Day Time Sound Shell events, as well as selected 2021 Four Winds concerts and events throughout the year. Note: You must register for all events you wish to attend.

The Four Winds Access Pass is offered to residents of the Bega Valley and Eurobodalla Shires who also hold the following concessions:

Australian Pension Card

Full-time Student Card

DVA Gold Card

Please note: Seniors Card does not apply

Throughout 2021, your Access Pass will give you entry to the following types of Four Winds events:

2021 Saturday Sound Shell and Sunday Sound Shell daytime concerts at our flagship Four Winds Festival event at Easter.

Any Four Winds ticketed event presented in the Sound Shell (unless otherwise specified).

Any performance in the Windsong Pavilion where the ticket price is $30 or less, as available on a first come first served basis.

Bookings are essential.

One performance in the Windsong Pavilion where the ticket price is greater than $30 as available on a first come first served basis.

Performances of The Iliad (Out Loud) are not covered by the Access Pass. For these events, you will need to buy a separate ticket. You will still need to register tickets for the Free Friday events.

Please note: If you are a holder of the 2020 Access Pass, the 2021 Festival is included on that pass. Registrations are required for the Sound Shell days and weekend events.

TO BOOK

You must have your pension card (type and number) ready in order to complete the transaction.

Saturday kicks off with The New Graces and their intimate songs of life in Australia, followed by the Golden String Quartet Australia's pre-eminent string quartet reflecting on human faith, struggle, compassion, and the natural environment. There will be moments of poetry and spoken word, and a fabulous, all-female composer program of music performed by the Sydney Symphony Orchestra Fellowship.

Then the extraordinary Sydney Dance Company will have us enthralled with the athletic artistry of Cinco! Graham Abbott holds court in the Sapphire Lounge, a place to relax and revive.

Join us on the grasses and close your eyes to experience Baroque specialists The Muffat Collective with Persian Oud played by Hamed Sadeghi.

Then brace yourselves for the vibrant piano of Stefan Cassomenos as he, Taryn Feibig and string players take us on a journey through a Latin influenced repertoire. More moments of spoken word, and a stunning rendition of Bach's Cello Suite No 4 by the ACO's Timo Veikko Valve. Then luminous singer Lior joins Nigel Westlake and players for Compassion. Sung in Hebrew and Arabic, this is a glorious, inspirational piece of music for our times.

One of the greatest stories ever told takes place on our amphitheatre stage over three evenings. Homer's ageless masterpiece – about pride and greed, glory and horror, read out loud against a backdrop of coastal sunset skies. Please note: this event is not recommended for children under 12 years old.
